> OBITUARY. Death of Samuel Showers.

Samuel Showers, a well-known citizen, died last night, after a short illness, at his residence, No. 229 South Queen street. On Tuesday last he was attacked with severe pneuomonia, and, although everything possible was done to alleviate his sufferings, he grew rapidly worse and died as above stated. Mr. Showers was, we believe, a native of West Cocalico township, where, in his earlier life, he followed farming. Coming to Lancaster he leased the Keystone hotel, shortly after it was built, and kept it for some time. Subsequently he kept a hotel at the corner of North Queen and Walnut streets, on the site now occupied as a hardware store by Stoner, Shreiner & Co. He was afterwards engaged extensively in the manufacture of price for teaching them how to do some vinegar, in partnership with James L. Downey, now of the Louisiana Journal, Missouri. The factory was accidentally burned down and Mr. Showers became a salesman in the liquor business. At the time of his death he was in the employ of S. Clay Miller. He was the father of Geo. H. Showers, of the INTELLIGENCER, Wm. II. Showers, late of the 79th Pa. vols., and several other children. He was the explosion of a gasoline lamp on Fredfor many years, and at the time of his erick street. He was engaged at filling and death, a member of the Cocalico lodge of cleaning the lamp. Academy of the Sacred Heart. A fine musical entertainment was given last evening at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, corner of Ann and Orange streets, by the pupils of the academy. A large number of patrons and friends of the school were present, and the singing and playing by the pupils was of a high order of excellence.

The programme was as follows: Instrumental duett. by M. Saffer and C. Murray; vocal solo, "Sing to me, Nora," A Wenderoth ; Instrumental solo, "La Dame Blanche," K. Haberbush; instrumental solo, "Echoes from the Green Isle," M. Anders ; vocal solo. "Robert le Diable." C. While all the pieces were highly enjoyed, the first vocal solo sung by Miss A. Wenderoth, the solo by little Miss Anders, the instrumental solo from Mendelssohn by Miss Kate Diller, and the vocal solo by Miss C. Murray, were especially fine.

At the conclusion of the concert Rev. Father Kaul, of St. Anthony's complimented the pupils on their proficency.

DUST TO DUST.

Dr. Welchens' Funeral. The funeral of Dr. S. Welchens, which took place this afternoon was very largely attended. The religious services were conducted by Rev. J. Y. Mitchell, of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. John A. Peters, of the First Reformed, and Rev. J. B. Shumaker, D. D., of St. Paul's Reformed church. Rev. Mitchell based his discourse on the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians, his theme being the resurrection of the dead. The discourse was an able one and in the course of it Rev. Mitchell paid a deserved tribute to the Christian character of Dr. Welchens.

The remains of the doctor, encased in a handsome burial case, were viewed by few lines, which please insert in your next is hundreds of his friends, and the solemn procession moved to Lancaster cemetery where the body was interred.

Not Spirits, But Clever Tricks.

Cooke gave another exhibition at Fulton hall last evening, disclaiming all aid from the "spirits." Miss Crawford, the clairvoyant, being indisposed, could not give an exhibition of her ability to answer test questions. The tying and loosing business, ring trick, conversion of wine to water and water to wine, and others were admirably performed. A dozen or more gentlemen in the audience accepted Mr. Cooke's invitation to remain after the performance, and paid him a good round of the tricks. The entertainment throughout was highly enjoyable and was deserving of a more liberal patronage than was

AN OLD BIBLE.

Precious as an Heir Loom and Family Esther M. Pownall, wife of Simeon B. Pownall, near Christiana, has in her posession an old Bible. On the fly leaf is written "Cordelia Webb her book given to her by her mother, Sarah Jones, in the year 1772." Cordelia was the wife of Eze kiel Webb, who lived near Chadd's ford at on its banks when Lafayette received wound for American freedom. The family record of Ezekiel and

Cordelia is in this book written by

Cordelia. She must have been a highy educated woman for that time. The writing and the figures of the date are like an engraving. The oldest child was Elizabeth, born 1773, (married to a Pierce) : 2d child Rebecca, born 1775 and died 1776; 3d Sarah, born 1777, (married a Copeland); 4th Hannah, born 1779, (married a Harlan); 5th Thomas Webb, lived near Unionville, born 1781; 6th John, born 1783; 7th Ezekiel, born 1784. Cordelia died in 1785 and her ashes lie in the old Kennet burying grounds : Ezekiel died in 1828. This Bible was given to Thomas, the eldest son, whose family record is also in it. He had ten children, recorded in his hand: Matilda born 1803, Ezekiel born 1804, Henry born 1806. Elizabeth born 1807, Mary born 1809, Jane S. born 1811, Thomas J. born 1813, Esther born 1815, Sarah born 1817, William born 1820. There are six of these children living at the present time. Henry is in the 74th year of his age, lives in Coleraine, Lancaster county, and celebrated the 50th anniversary of his married life last 12th mo., has 9 children, there has never been a death in his family. Two of his sons are in California, the oldest son has been there 26 years. In 1876 he owned 1600 acres of land, and was engaged in stock raising and growing wheat. The 2d son, Thomas Jones, has been there 20 years. Last year he was nominated for treasurer of Shasta county. The 3d son is in Des Moines, Iowa. The rest of his family are near him. He could see them all in one hour's time. The rest of Thomas Thomas J., near Elkview; William owns Unionville; Jane S., wife of William Tay-Jeffries, Romansville; John R. Baldwin's wife was a granddaughter and Brinton W. Woodward, of Kansas, a grand-son; Dr. Howard W. Pownall, of Atglen, is a great grandson. From this old Bible we can trace from a house on Adam Erlicher vs. Adolph Schlott. This all at that date. At the present time we find the Brandywine, 1776, one child that was where are the Pierces, Harlans and Copeon the shelf all this time-its pages tell that in many places. Show This to Your Doctor.

CLEVELAND, November 1, 1878. " Wachter am Erie," Cleveland, Ohio GENTLEMEN:-Allow me, as an old reader of your valuable journal, herewith to send you a sue. I will vouch for their truth, and know that by their publication a great deal of good will be accomplished. Having been a reader of your paper for many years, I hope you will kindly grant my request.

For twelve years I had suffered, from time to time, terribly with Rheumatism, to such an extent that I was unable to move about and lost the use of my limbs. I tried everything recommended to effect a cure, consulted some of the most prominent physicians and expended large sums of money, hoping to find relief, but without any success. Glancing over the columns of the " Wachter," I read about the St. JACOB'S OIL and the MANY cures this remedy had effected. Having been disappointed so many times, I lost all faith in any remedy, the St. JACOB'S OIL included, until I saw one day that it had cured a well-known citizen with whom I am acquainted. Other parties fully endorsed the value and wonderful power of the Oir, telling me that it had cured them of different ailments in a very short time. This brought me to a conclusion. I said to myselt, Schweizer, fifty cents won't break you;" so I went to my druggist, Mr. Bock, bought a bottle of the Oil, and must now confess that the re sult was truly wonderful. I used it every two nours, and found relief immediately upon the first application, and the pain ceased entirely after a few more applications. Fearing a new attack, I remained in bed and continued to use the remedy every three hours. All pain having left me, I arose from my bed and walked down stairs without any trouble. Since that time I have been able to follow my occupation and feel no pains or inconvenience, however disagreeable the changes of the weather may be. Having thoroughly tested the St. Jacob's Oil, I can conscientiously recommend it to all afflicted with Rheumatism. Fifty cents is a small expense when the services for so trifling an outlay are considered. If I was one thousand miles away from all human habitation, I should, nevertheless, procure this remedy and keep it always in my LOUIS SCHWEIZER, Cor, Mervin and Centre Sts , Cleveland, O

READING, Pa., Feb. 6.—The Eagle today publishes the following special dispatch from Topton: "There is great excitement to-day among the ore miners along the East Penn road and fears are entertained that strikers will do terrible work if their demands are not acceded to. The strikers held a meeting at East Texas and passed resolutions; first, to go from mine to mine compelling miners to suspend; second, should they resume work to draw the fires from under the boilers; third, threatening to burn down the building if other efforts do not avail. It is rumored that the men near Topton have struck and after joining the strikers at East Texas they will visit every mine between the two places. Some of the men, however, are satisfied and will not join the strikers. It is probable that the iron ore operators will appeal to the sheriff for protection. Many of them are now under arms, and if the threatened outbreak should occur it may become necessary to call upon a military company to restore order.
